

Violations of Academic Integrity

The Student Assessment and Promotions Committee (SAPC) reviews issues related to student academic dishonesty. The SAPC may recommend various activities to remediate unethical behavior. If the behavior is found to be serious or egregious, the SAPC may recommend to the Program Director remediation without progression or dismissal as outlined in the “Student Remediation” section.