

Student Association - American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians (SAACOFPP)

The objective of the undergraduate chapter of the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians (ACOFPP) is to advance the specialty of family practice in the field of osteopathic medicine and surgery. The organization works toward the advancement of family practice and recognition of the importance of the family practitioner's role in the context of osteopathic medical services in the community. The chapter advances the role of the family practitioner as the backbone of modern medical practice. Membership in this organization entitles students to benefits such as seminars, educational programs, and financial support to various family practice conferences.
