

Course Requirements

The requirements for each year must be completed successfully before a student can begin the next years' curriculum, unless the SAPC makes the decision of "Progression with Remediation" (see "Student Remediation"). All students have the same didactic and clinical course requirements.

Students must maintain all requirements for clinical rotations including immunization/health screening, OSHA training, HIPAA training, drug screening, and BLS certification. Expenses associated with maintaining these requirements are the responsibility of the student.