

Attendance

Attendance to all classes is mandatory unless otherwise stated in the course syllabus. If a student misses more than 5% of classes, the ability to be successful in the program is unlikely. A student that misses more than 5% of classes will need to take a leave of absence or withdraw from the program. Please refer to University policies on Pregnant and Parenting Students and Students with Learning Disabilities.