

Participating in Community Service

Outside of clinical rotations, the Program does not sanction or support students providing medical care or health screenings as healthcare providers. Students must be supervised in a clinical setting and are only covered by liability insurance and Workers' Compensation when in Program-Assigned clinical experience or testing. If the volunteer service is a part of the clinical experience and the student will be actively supervised, this should be discussed with the Director of Clinical Education.