

Deferment

RVU PA Program allows requests for deferment of acceptance into the program in the event of an unforeseen circumstance. The Admissions Committee may consider an applicant's request for deferment into the next cohort for the following reasons:

- Military deployment;
- Significant personal or family health issues.

Applicants requesting deferment must contact the PA Program Admissions Committee for additional information.