

Employment During Enrollment

Employment during the MSBS program is strongly discouraged. The demands of the program are high and the faculty feel strongly that complete dedication to the program has a better outcome for the students' long-term goals. Students in the MSBS Program should contact the Office of Student Financial Services for help with budgeting or emergency loans rather than seeking outside employment.