

General Information Sessions

The RVU PA Program offers information sessions for those who are interested in attending the program. Dates for these information sessions will be posted on the program website. Sessions are scheduled once per month. Attendance at these sessions is not required for admission.